

STSA Sales Policy

The Southern Thoracic Surgical Association establishes specific pricing and refund policies for each of the types of services it offers. For example, membership dues apply to a full calendar year while pricing for other types of activities (such as meetings) is specific to those activities. Under certain circumstances, refunds may be made.